

The School of Chemical Engineering, Purdue University, seeks outstanding individuals at Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor rank with a Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral level degree in a science or engineering discipline, in areas related to solar energy and electronic device research. Exceptional individuals in other areas will also be considered. Candidates should have a distinguished academic record, outstanding potential to conduct world-class research, and a commitment to educate and mentor students. The successful candidates will conduct original research, advise graduate students, teach undergraduate and graduate level courses, and perform service both at the School and University levels. Candidates with experience working with diverse groups of students, faculty, and staff and the ability to contribute to an inclusive climate are particularly encouraged to apply.

The School of Chemical Engineering at Purdue University has experienced significant growth in the past decade and has a strong faculty core engaged in all areas of Chemical Engineering as well as significant interdisciplinary efforts across campus, with other academic institutions, and industrial partners. The College of Engineering at Purdue is currently undergoing extensive growth, with over one hundred faculty position openings being projected over a five year period.
